Handling Information

Simply remove shortbread pan from its case, cut shrink film and remove desired quantity of shortbread squares. Allow time to defrost if cutting into a different size or shape. If not serving immediately, shrink wrap and or keep in an airtight container. Serve as is or if so desired the soft center of each shortbread slice makes it easy to cut each square into a different shape or size for retail, banquets, catered events, meetings, cookie platters, brunch, afternoon teas, etc. Add your own finishing touch, perhaps dipping them in chocolate or dust them with powdered sugar.
